

Library Mission

The D'Arcy McNickle Library serves as the academic library for Salish Kootenai College (SKC), the Tribal Library for the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes (CSKT), and public library for the residents of the Flathead Reservation.

The library supports the mission of Salish Kootenai College by providing information resources, promoting information literacy through formal and informal instruction, and assisting faculty, staff and students in their efforts to achieve success.

The Library makes a special effort to collect all materials related to the Tribes, their history, culture, and Reservation affairs. The Library seeks to be an active source of information for the Reservation Community.

Confidentiality Statement

The D'Arcy McNickle Library staff will never give out any personal information about you or your Library account to any third party.
